Dave, I think I'll set it back to tomorrow so you can participate. I haven't heard from Dom yet and I think he is the one doing most of the response. So if I can get you, Ayn and Dom on the line I think that will be good enough.

Greg,

I will have to participate from the road (going to DFW to pick up my daughter). I will also have to join late unless you can move the time back to 3 PM. Rick is on travel today. Not sure when he will be available to participate.

Rick and Dom do you have time to do this today or should I reschedule for another time? I think that Ayn and Dave also have some ideas on how to share the load so I'd like to have them on the line too. Also, since Deb is the lab director now I'm not sure how much she wants to be involved in Pavillion and how much Dave wants to phase out so we could probably go over that too so everyone understands new roles.

If this time doesn't work please suggest a new one.
